

Hillbilly Club

Mixer: Cow Pattie Toss

Form four teams. Have each team make a human pyramid and then have the person on the top of the pyramid throw "cow patties" to try and knock over stacks of bottles. Have the groups doing this at the same time.

Participation 1: Cricket Spit

Have 6 kids come up and compete to see who can spit a cricket into the crowd the farthest

Participation 2: PB&J Toe Sandwiches

Have 6 kids come and partner up. One kid sits in a chair while the other kid sits on the ground. The kid in the chair makes PB & J with their toes and feeds it, with their feet, to their partner

Running Skit Participation: Tag Team Two Liter

Have 12 kids come up and pair off. Give each pair a 2 liter of soda and have them race to finish the bottle first-each pair tags back and forth to drink it down the fastest.

Entertainment: Viking Skit

Use the song La Fortuna by Wagner. The music starts and the "Viking" comes out dressed in a Viking helmet and toga, carrying a pillow in each hand. He never says anything, he just swings the pillows around and hits people as he makes his way through the crowd. As the music builds, he points to a kid and then points to the front. They proceed to the front of the club, right at the climax of the song, they start a pillow fight. The kid always wins and the Viking runs off the stage.

Announcements: Hot Girl Announcements

You can do this several ways, you can have a couple of hot girl or guy leaders read the announcements or you could go out to the mall or to the school campus and have different hot girls/guys read the announcements. You can play with this one and do almost anything...hot grandma, hot baby, hot bus driver...the sky's the limit!
